Congratulation message from the president of the WFTU

Comrade Muhammad Shaaban Azzouz, president of the World Federation of Trade Unions, send the following message to all workers.

To all affiliates and friends of W.F.T.U.
Dear comrades and friends ..

On the occasion of the first of May the International Labor Day, a symbol of solidarity of the proletariat, I am pleased on behalf of the Presidency of the World Federation of Trade Unions and myself, that I send you my sincere greetings and best wishes, expressing the deep appreciation of the positions of your organization and your continual support of W.F.T.U. I confirm our commitment to deepen and strengthen our mutual relations based on trust and mutual respect and common interest in building safe and stable world free of exploitation and aggression.

We appreciate and value the successes your organization at the level of development of your country and your plans to continue the policy of friendship and cooperation with all peoples and workers of the world. We highly appreciate your plans in the face of policies and schemes of imperialism and colonial seeking to escalate the arms race and eliminate the achievements and gains of the working class, especially in the struggle against the Zionist colonial racial project.

We greet you and wish you and your workers and the people further progress and prosperity.

Long lives solidarity between the militant workers of the world!

Muhammad Shaaban Azzouz
President of the World Federation of Trade Unions
